“We need people to come back to Ferguson, shop in Ferguson, support Ferguson, help Ferguson get back to where we were.” - Graylin Slater

GRAYLIN SLATER OWNER OF YOLO BOUTIQUE

Yolo Boutique has been a staple fashion retailer in Ferguson for over five years. After more than 60 percent of the store's merchandise was looted, its owner, Graylin Slater, vowed to stay local. He was able to do so and is open today because of assistance from local agencies and the community.

THANK YOU TO OUR PARTNERS

In response to the tragedies in Ferguson, Dellwood, Jennings and the surrounding areas, many corporations and business leaders throughout the region stepped up to invest in the region's future. This support was given through targeted donations and hands-on assistance to support education, small businesses and community improvement, along with job creation and business expansion in the impacted areas.
